

1) Context - scale is imprecise but captures main large-scale features

Innre See Stich

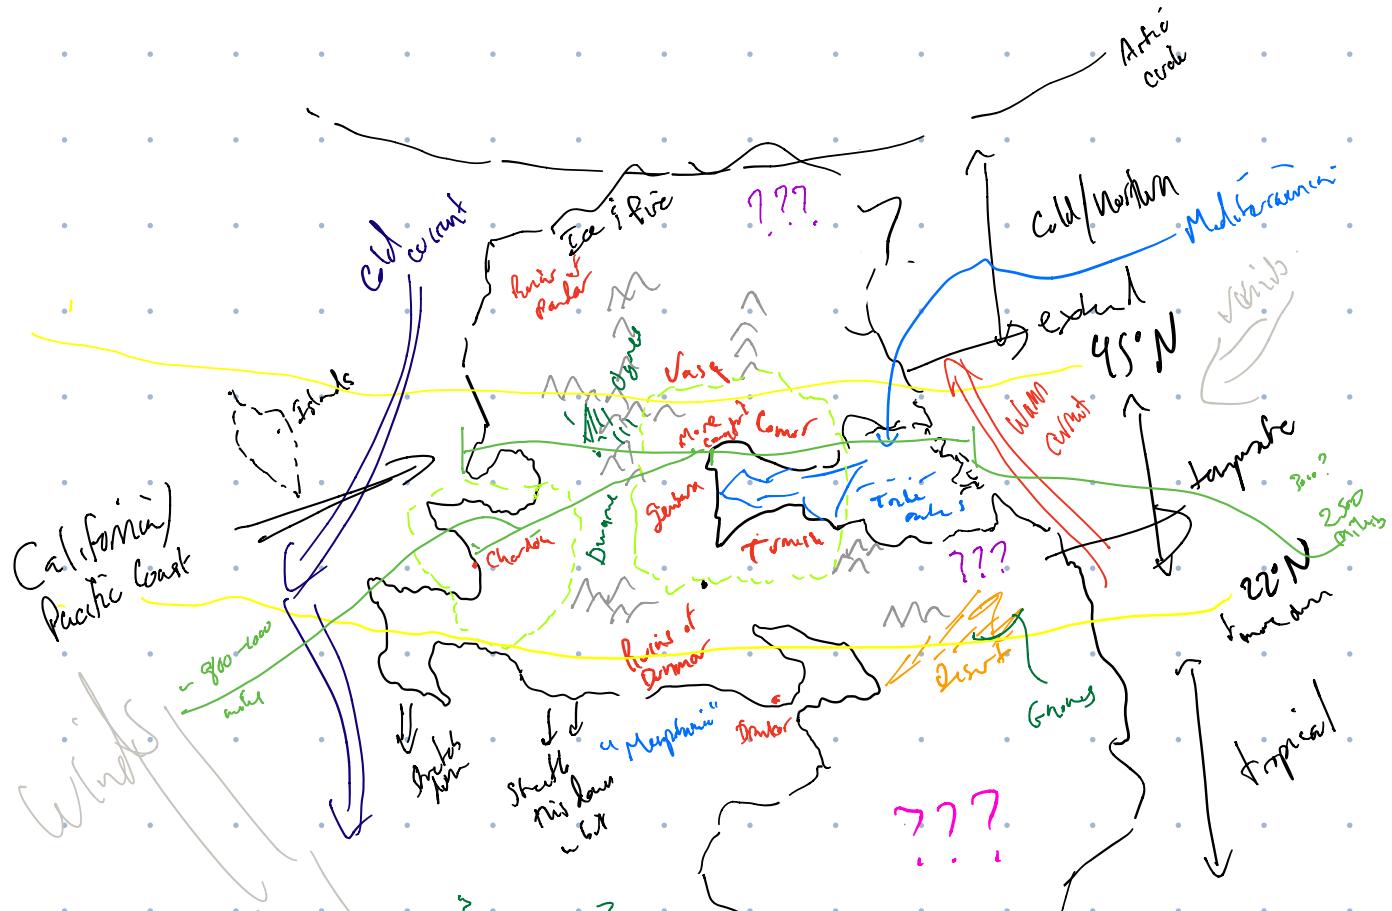

Main context:

West → through mountains to Chardan (some trade but dangerous)

3-4 Major currents around

Sierra Sea:

Sundown - no night kings

Large island?
Topical?
name & location?

Egypt

To do:

- Continue to refine current scale map → Scale needs work

- Brief outline at 3rd Age/early 4th age history of people movement to get others down

: probably only need to worry about at end of Inner Sea so short

↳ Really rough overview of "major" cultures outside of Inner Sea

↳ Slightly less rough overview of "Inner Sea" cultures, mountain cultures

↳ Serbia in detail

↳ approx France sized

Inner Sea approx Netherlands sized

Larger? The islands to East should be Exotic

↳ China history part 3rd Age especially ↳ ethnic background → descendants of Drakkar?

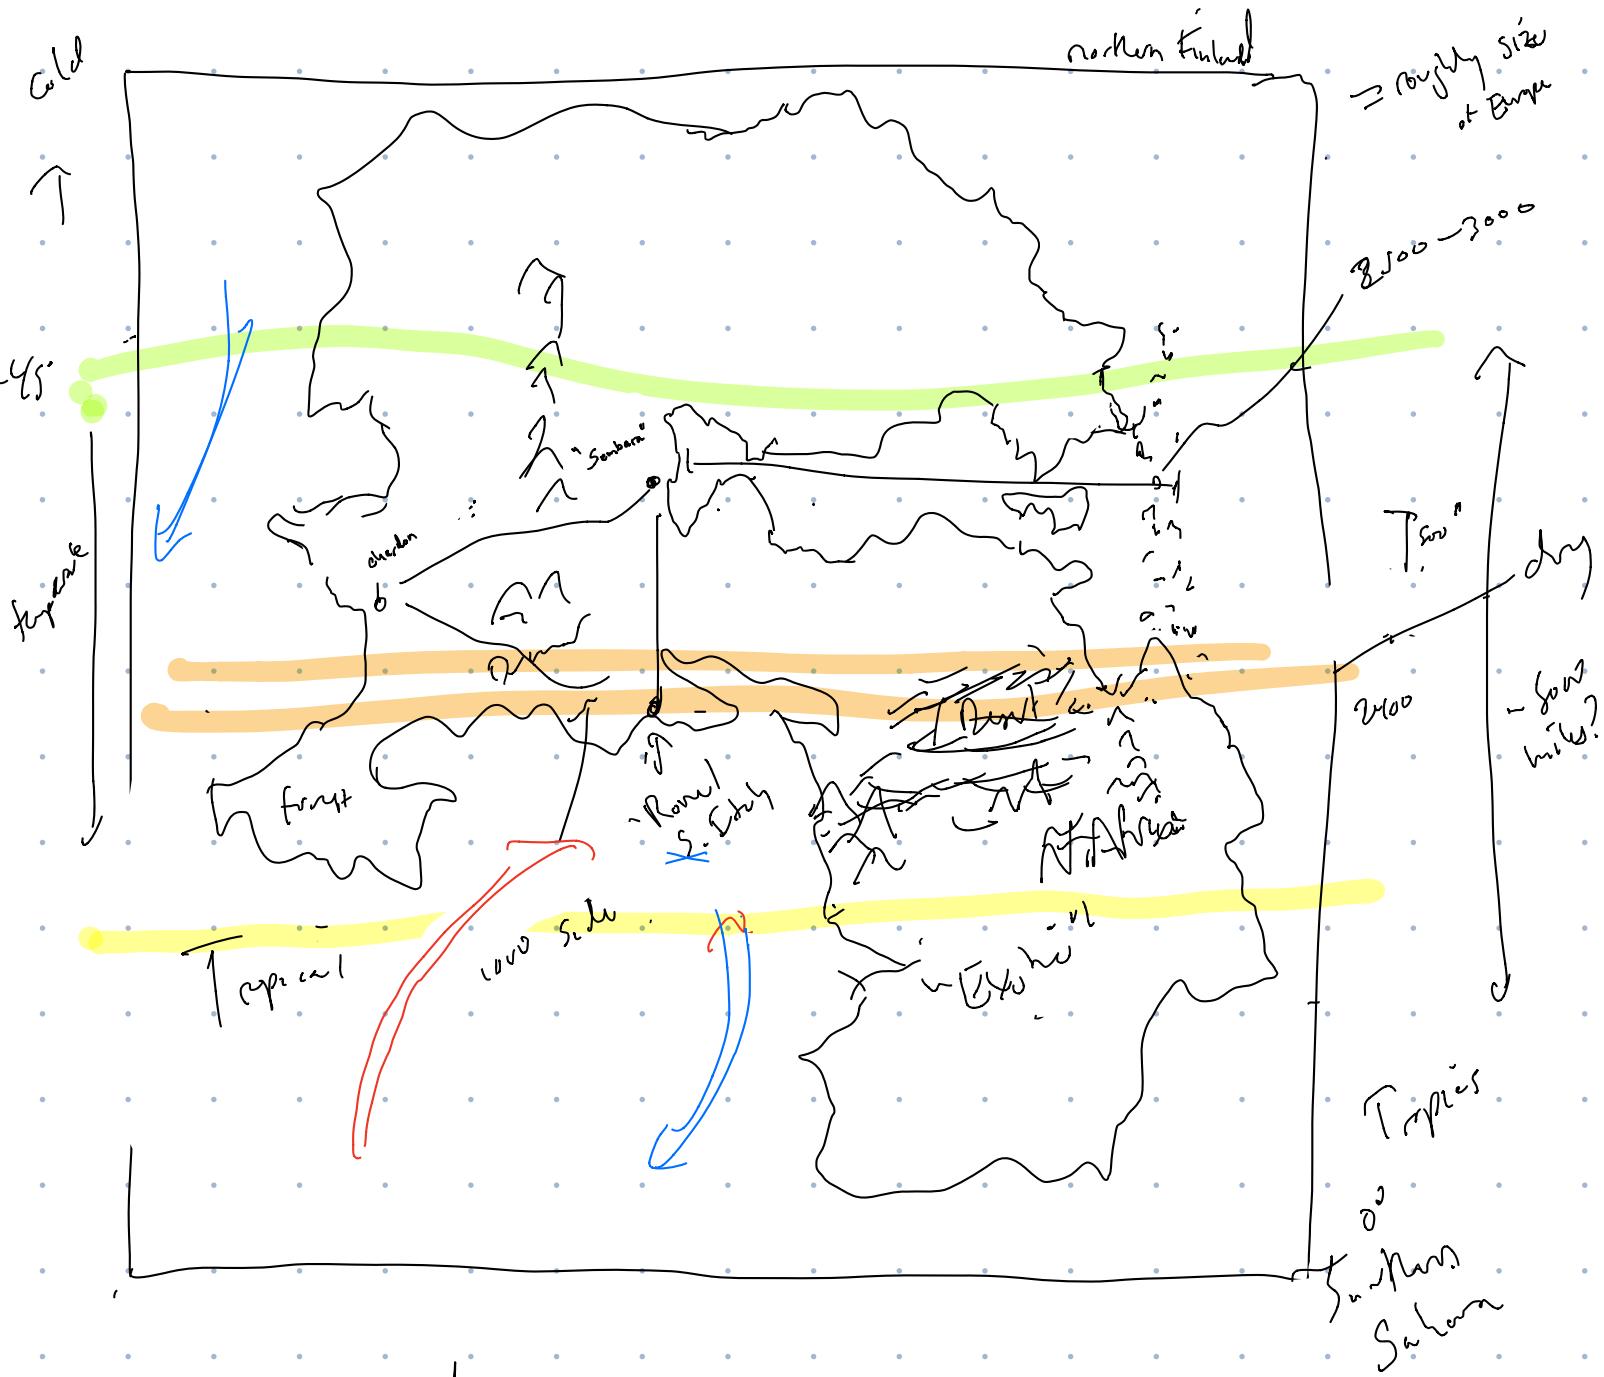

General notes:

Taylor in 4th age is a world recovering from Oberaufbau. Lots of ruins, lost knowledge, unharvested land

Demar gone, upheavals in Mithra

Inner Sea largely escaped plague → Donker in Tiefen

Author version of content Scale

This is basically good.

- West Northerners
 - original ethnic group & first settlers
 - were composed of
 - Dutch

Redraw map, add 4 layers:

innermost? → Elder Days - lots of elves, few humans, but those that exist are one of two major ethnic groups (Southern & Northern); magic everywhere and blues are; more humans w/ magical background live in Hkar w/ Elves; Half-elves come into being first (shifting) → [Shattering / Great Displacement / Something shifts plane of magic slightly] out of phase w/ Taeger, magic is harder

Rise of Dwarves? Ogre do prominence, height of Runic Magic Great orc wars

[Disturbance underground, increased volcanic activity → Pardar, desert, Hkar suffer → 2nd Shattering & something]

Sea farers from Hkar settle in Darkor, 3rd major wave of human expansion

→ Drankorian empire pushes Northlanders off West to N, conquers East, large influence on Inner Sea

↳ Plague, Drankor falls

↳ Dunmari ride up the coast, split and conquer. Duhamar and mix w/ "Tunish"
