

A few misc ideas for Alldel/next few sessions:

- 1) Get more non-human interactions - Should be some Dwarves in Alldel
- 2) More magic → some random enchantments?
- 3) Maybe make Ranger DMPC an Elf to get more Toedge flavor into Elvur?

other planes: where do Feywild / Shundrell fit in?

What about Elemental planes?

→ Backstory:

Meride's elf home has always been somewhat isolated, and didn't suffer badly during Elven annihilation.

But what actually happened to Elvur? Presumably Meride should know something about this.

But maybe DMPC much suffer/misunderstand in general and decided to see another Elf?
